

Our

microbrewery and restaurant was established in September 1997 as Tacoma's first microbrewery. The Harmon is located in Tacoma's Historic Brewery District, and is housed in a 102 year old building, rich with brewing lore. Local Tacoma folk, Pat Nagle and Carole Holder, own and operate The Harmon Brewery and have recently expanded with a new production brewery in Tacoma's Stadium District.

Harmon Brewing Co has been building a quality brand, and loyal customers, in the Puget Sound Region for the past 15 years. We are not the newest craft brewery on the block, but rather a local company that has remained dedicated to providing a superior level of customer service and a craft beer product we can confidently call ..."the best".

Harmon beers are often used as benchmarks for quality and style within the industry – the Puget Sound Porter is just one example of being the best of the best – winning Gold at the GABF in 1999. It is now our time, and our duty, to bring these fine ales to all the craft beer lovers in Washington, Oregon and Alaska.
